

Breastfeeding the Compromised Infant

February 10 , 2012

Texas Department of State Health Services

Breastfeeding the Compromised Infant is a workshop designed to help health professionals promote and support breastfeeding during potential problems in the compromised infant that can impact breastfeeding. Prior attendance to the Breastfeeding Management Program is helpful.

This program is provided by The Department of State Health Services in cooperation with The Woman's Hospital of Texas

Continuing Education Credits:

This continuing nursing education activity was approved by the Texas Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. (4.0)

This activity is approved for 4.0 Level I Continuing Professional Education hours by the Texas Dietetic Association.

The International Board of Lactation Consultant Examiners awards 4.0 L-CERPs for this activity

BREAST MILK
EVERY OUNCE COUNTS

Program Content

8:00 AM. Sign-In

- Breastfeeding the Compromised infant
- Skin to Skin contact
- Breastfeeding equipment to assist with feeding difficulties
- Establishing mother's milk supply for the compromised infant

12:30 PM Program Ends

Facility Name

The Woman's Hospital of Texas
7600 Fannin Street
Houston, TX 77054

Classroom C

Registration:

Houston Are Collaborative
Perinatal Program

www.hacpp.org

Fee: no charge HACPP members & WIC employees. See HACPP website – fee schedule - for non member & affiliate institution fees for core offerings

